Eco-Schools Silver Award

Dear Parents and Carers,

The children have settled back into their school routines very well. The work that some of the children have produced has been excellent and it was lovely to receive an email regarding the excellent behaviour of the children when they visited Tipton Library. I hope that you all have an excellent weekend and fingers crossed that the weather gets a little bit warmer.

Best wishes
Mrs A McGuire
Principal

Parent's Association

We are currently planning the P.A. events for the Spring Term. Money raised from our Christmas events will be used towards new Wet Play Games boxes for the children across all year groups to use.

Breakfast Club and Friday Childcare Booking Forms

Please collect your booking forms from the school office, if you require a Breakfast Club place or Friday Childcare for this term. All places must be booked in advance due to staffing and we cannot accept any late bookings. Our Breakfast Club is now open from 7.30am in the morning and costs £2.50 per child.

After School Clubs

You will have received your letter regarding our After School Club programme, there are 13 clubs including Drumming, Zumba and Basketball. Please return your forms to school by Wednesday 10th January.

Swimming

Well done to our girls and boys swimming teams who entered the Sandwell School's swimming competition at Langley Leisure Centre. The Girls Team finished 5th out of 13 schools and the Boys Team finished 4th out of 13 schools. Thank you to Mr Westwood for his hard work with both the teams.
