Newsletter No.23

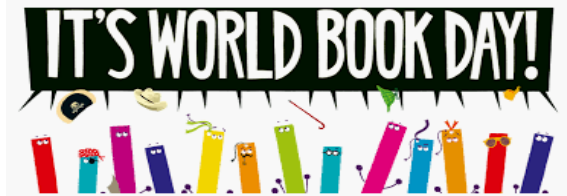

Dear Parents and Carers,

The children all look fantastic today in their World Book Day outfits, thank you for making such a great effort. The children have had a wonderful time in school, completing lots of different activities; well done to all!

Our Worship tomorrow will be slightly different as we have Blind Dave coming to talk about his story and how he has overcome barriers in his life to become more physically active. He will share some of his amazing stories and talk about his future challenges, am sure that this will be very interesting and I hope that you will be able to join us. Have a great weekend!

Best wishes
Mrs A McGuire
Principal
