

St Paul's Reading Newsletter

3rd March 2022

To celebrate World Book Day 2022, we would like to share with you some of our favourite reading books and new releases to inspire your child's reading at home.

World Book Day Vouchers

Today, your child will bring home a World Book Day voucher which they can swap for one of twelve unique titles written for World Book Day. From texts for early readers through to older more established readers there is a book free for everyone!

These vouchers can be used up until Sunday 22nd March.

Alternatively, if your child doesn't want one of the 12 selected titles the voucher can be swapped for £1 off a book of their choice.

Our World Book Day text

Each year we select a text that is studied and enjoyed by all children across the whole school. This year we have read 'The Lion Inside' by Rachel Bright and Jim Field.

This delightful text is a story about confidence and self esteem as a shy, little mouse sets out on a journey to find his roar.

Our children described this story as inspiring and heart-warming.

Why not ask your child what they thought about this book? If they enjoyed it, they may also enjoy 'The Squirrels who Squabbled' or 'The Koala Who Could'.

New releases 2022

Released 17th February 2022 one of our most loved author's, David Walliams, has created another typically funny and heart-warming story of a panda born with orange fur and the charming quest he undertakes to find his place in the forest. With its vibrant images and witty humour this text is bound to be enjoyed by children and adults alike.

Following the Covid-19 pandemic we recognise that many children are struggling with anxiety and this book is a perfect mixture of a hilarious story mixed with the important message of managing anxiety. The text focuses on a nervous young boy whose fears manifest themselves as a giant pink llama. Due for release 14th April 2022 the authors, Rachel Morrisroe and Ella Okstad, have tackled a difficult topic for young children in our current climate with a funny story that they are bound to enjoy.

Our Recommended Reads

To celebrate our love of reading we asked the children of St Paul's what their favourite texts were to inspire others to read for pleasure across our school. We would like to thank all children that sent us their amazing book reviews and picked a randomly selected a couple of reviews to share with you and to inspire your reading for pleasure:

Emily, Year 3, shared her favourite book which was 'The Borrowers Afield'. She said...

'This book is a great read because the story depicts the adventures of a 4-inch girl and her parents who go on a thrilling but terrifying adventure and meet horrifying creatures and a few new friends along the way. If you are a fan of gripping, adventure books then this book is the book for you!'

Millie-Rose, Year 2, drew a picture of the characters from her favourite book Choclatina. She said...

'This book is a must read for most adults and children who secretly have a love of chocolate. So, if you like chocolate then you would enjoy reading this book as much as I do!'
