

Learning Log Homework

Year 6 – Week beginning 6th July

Focus – A Child’s War (WWII)
Science – ‘Loose Lips Sink Ships’ Many military messages had to be coded during WWII to avoid the enemy finding out key information and tactics. Use //www.schoolofdragons.com/resources/make-invisible-ink-view to create invisible ink to send hidden messages to your family.	Research – Dig for Victory During WWII families grew their own vegetables to help provide for their families during the period of rationing. Can you find out about which foods were rationed and why. Maybe try growing some of your own vegetables for you and your family to enjoy.	DT– Make do and mend. Can you upcycle an item of your own clothes? Perhaps you have grown out of a pair of jeans, can you turn them into shorts? Can you improve an old T-shirt or even learn to fix the holes in your socks?

Every week we expect that you:

Read 3 times a week – 3 books will be provided weekly on active learn.

Practice your spellings – Spelling shed activities will be set weekly.

Practice your Times Tables on Times Tables Rock Stars

Continue to use monster SATs and the revision books provided to ensure you remain secondary school ready.

Self - Assessment – Pupils tick where you think that you are.
