

Learning Log Homework

Year 6 – Week beginning 13th July

Focus – A Child’s War (WWII)
Writing – ‘Listen to Churchill’s VE Day speech https://www.bbc.com/historyofthebbc/anniversaries/may/ve-day-broadcasts What makes his speech effective? What phrases does he repeat? Can you write your own motivational speech for the end of WWII? Alternatively, you could take inspiration from Churchill and write a speech for the end of our current lockdown.	Research – Research the United Nations. Why was it created and which countries signed up? Create a map of the countries that are part of the United Nations.	Presentation– Create a presentation of everything you have learnt over the course of this topic. Look back at your questions from 1st June, have you discovered all the answers? You could choose to present your learning in a mind map or poster, PowerPoint, or an iMovie. The choice is yours!
Every week we expect that you: Read 3 times a week – 3 books will be provided weekly on active learn. Practice your spellings – Spelling shed activities will be set weekly. Practice your Times Tables on Times Tables Rock Stars Continue to use monster SATs and the revision books provided to ensure you remain secondary school ready.
